"A Day with Two Funny Dwarfs"

The PLOT

This tender and naive story, takes us hand in hand along with these two sweet dwarfs, who are best friends, and together face an 'adventurous' day where they will... get lost and finally realize that home is just around the bend!... discover that friendship only has meaning when they make each other happy maybe by simply exchanging 'a dear old sweater' by another 'dear old sweater'... find out that here and there are everywhere!... be chased by a bothering itch that seems to be a 'travelling itch'... became 'poemteers' by simply putting some good sounds together to make them rhyme, and finally take a last walk back home to... get lost again!

They will laugh, play, sing, dance and have lots of fun all along their journey.

And they truly hope you do too!

Nut and Doe are two dwarfs

1. Can you draw Nut and Doe as you imagine them? Nut is a little fatter...

3. This is one of Doe and Nut's songs. It's called 'Making Poems'.

Listen to your teacher and find the words that sound similar to you.

MAKING POEMS

What a show, Doe
You're not fat, Nut
Be in good mood
Go and play all day

There's a mouse in the house
There's a fish on the dish
Stick your nose in a rose
Let's eat peach on the beach

Run and have fun
Come and go, Doe
Put some good sounds together
And a poet you'll be!

4. Which of these words do you think Doe and Nut don't use along the day they'll spend with you?
Circle them.

elephant

crocodile

old

airplane
